Alice Paul Says Vote in Presidential Election Depends on Republicans

SIX STATES YET TO ACT

The question whether the women citizens of the United States will be permitted to vote in the next presidential election or whether all of them shall vote in the primaries, some of which will be held as early as next March, was answered by Miss Alice Paul, national chairman of the National Woman's Party, in a statement read yesterday at a meeting of the Pennsylvania branch of the party at 1613 Chancery street.

The statement follows: "It is up to the Republicans. The fact that the Democrats, by refusing the last two votes in the Senate, held up the passage of the amendment for more than a year, makes us hesitate to count our ratification votes until they are cast. If Republican governors will act there is no question but the amendment will be passed promptly."

states, presided over by Republican governors, stand ready to ratify if called into session—Connecticut, Vermont, Delaware and Indiana. Three Republican legislatures meet in regular session in January—Kentucky, Rhode Island and New Jersey. This would leave only one state to be secured.

"This one vote can easily be won, for Oklahoma and Nevada, full suffrage states, with Democratic governors, are still unaccounted for, while the Democratic legislature of Maryland, meeting in regular session in January, is expected to take favorable action, and West Virginia shows a majority pledged when its Democratic governor is willing to act."

Reports of Work

Reports were made on the activities of the Pennsylvania branch and the volunteer work of members who have campaigned in other states since the ratification of the suffrage amendment here. It was reported that Pennsylvania had sent $4000 each month to Washington to help the work of ratification in other states. Conditions in the following adjoining states were reported as follows: Information from leaders in New Jersey shows that the state conventions of both parties have endorsed ratification of the amendment. The present governor and the governor-elect are favorable to ratification. The incoming legislature, which is Republican, favors a majority pledged in the Senate, with many still non-committal in the House, within five days of the ratification. The incoming legislature of New Jersey and a majority of the delegation in the House of Representatives voted for suffrage, while in Delaware a poll of the legislature shows that a majority of the members have made written or verbal statements that they will vote for ratification. Governor Townsend, a Republican, refuses to call a special session because of local issues.

Dix Stragglers Are Arrested

Trenton, Dec. 19.—Wholesale raids executed by military police from Camp Dix on the Y. M. C. A., the War Camp Community House and the Pennsylvania Railroad station netted a score of soldier stragglers and they were taken back to the camp. Two many soldiers from Dix are coming to Trenton without the necessary passes, it was said by the M. P.'s, and the camp officials intend to break up the practice.

ABANDON BABY IN COLD

A baby girl, who was saved from perishing in the cold after having been left on a doorstep last night, is being cared for today at the Philadelphia General Hospital, while the police try to find the infant's parents.

Mrs. Harry Otto, of 2840 North Hutchinson street, hearing faint cries outside, opened her front door and found the baby on the step. The infant seemed to be about six weeks old. She was fully clad and wrapped in a blanket, but as it was 6 degrees above zero, she was suffering from the cold. Mrs. Otto sent for the police.

Allies Undecided on Scapa

Paris, Dec. 19.—(By A. P.)—Allied experts are not agreed as to what demands should be made on Germany as reparation for sinking of the interned German fleet at Scapa Flow, according to the Matin.

Some are disposed to accept newly constructed ships from the Germans, while others would require the delivery of German light cruisers. It is probable, the newspaper says, that a compromise will be reached.

NUT MARGARINE

(ASHBY PROCESS)

The Perfected Nut Butter—Free From All Preservatives

Best Or Your Money Back!

Made by a New, Exclusive Process

The Nut Margarine industry is new in the United States and, until our discovery, Nut Margarine was made by the same process used in making oleomargarine (from animal fats). Because the results of using the oleomargarine process to make nut butter were so undependable, we decided it was not good enough for us and set about developing a new process. We were successful. We called our new discovery the Ashby Process.

GOODY is different from other nut butters—better—because it is the only one made by this new process—The Ashby Process—which enables us to make a dependable product.

Perhaps you have tried other nut margarine. Perhaps even you have used it for a while. You remember how pleased you were with the idea of nut margarine when you first heard of it.

GOODY is what you hoped other nut margarine would be—uniformly delicious and melts at the same temperature as creamery butter.

No Preservatives

GOODY is made from such pure ingredients by such a skillful, cleanly method that it does not need to be preserved.

The only purpose of a preservative in nut margarine is to cover up the carelessness or the ignorance of the manufacturer.

No Animal Fats

GOODY contains nothing but the white meat of the coconut, peanut oil, pasteurized milk and butter salt. Can you imagine a more appetizing food?

You can depend upon GOODY. It is always good when it has been kept as butter ought to be kept.

GOODY "spreads" like butter, making it more economical as well as more satisfactory than other nut butters.

Food prices are high—people cannot afford to experiment—so, for your protection we guarantee GOODY—

Best—Or Your Money Back!

"Buy a pound package of GOODY from your dealer. Serve it on the table. Use it in your cooking. Try it in any way you please. Then, if you do not like GOODY as well as the choicest creamery butter you ever ate, your money will be refunded without a word."

Now we want your ideas about how best we may let everyone else know these things about GOODY.

Remember—Cash prizes for the best ideas—a pound of GOODY Free if your idea does not win a cash prize!
